Women

1 in 6 have +1 to +6 added to Charisma.

Constables

- 1 HD but all have 8 HTK due to special selection of stout constitution types. Foppishly dressed, the overly proud constables will rarely attempt to raise their Social Level as that would require leaving the bottom rung of the Gentlemen's Heirarchy for Deputy Sheriff in the General Heirarchy.

"Social Level" is a function of social esteem and clout. The Social Level chart is used to determine exactly who is encountered. Likewise you can determine a Non-Played Character's Social Position (rerolling on G, C, or W) by rolling a 6-sided dice to determine which Hei-archy he belongs to and then 20-sided one to find his exact position there. Players can be assigned a Heiarchy & Social Level (SL) or rolled for (though it is best to use a 4-sided dice, plus one, for the SL roll). As there are many ways of increasing your 'Social Esteem', it is entirely up to the judge as to when a player may go up SLs. For example, a player who is an armorer might take over a year per SL to attain Master Craftsman, while another player of the 'Gentry' might attain 'Chevalier' simply by shelling out 100,000 GP to sponsor a Gladiatorial Festival. Maintaining a mistress of higher SL, heroic acts, Quests performed and altruistic acts are all reasonable means to upward mobility. While the society is predominately human, various other races (like Dwarves, Goblins, Gnomes) have a place on the Social Level largely dependent upon their clout (e.g., the Dwarves have much more say than the Goblins etc.). Changing Heiarchies: Players who have attained the highest level in Heiarchies #3-6 may move (with a loss in SL) to the "Gentlemen" Heiarchy, SL #6 (Gentry) by sponsoring a Festival costing 10-60,000 GP. Likewise, a Gentlemen reaching "Pretender" (SL#8) may move to "Thane" (Noble SL7) after proving having a 100,000 GP land investment, offering complete allegiance and succeeding in rolling a 50% 'acceptance' chance. Failing in that, the "Pretender" loses 1 SL and must amass 50% more investment than last time, to try again.

While many of the Social Level names like "Gentry" are names for general classes or examples of specific types, the upper-ends of each hearchy may become contestable. For example, though there may be a dozen Patriarchs (& EHPs) if two 'Patriarchs of Odin' show up, there's going to be a struggle. All Social Level #5 and up are considered Citizens.

GENERAL GUIDELINES:
Serfs work a farm owned by a noble and can't leave freely (must dice as 'slave').
Villaines pay a rent to their lord equal to double tax rate on a fixed basis.

MILITARY: Note that a Sergeant commanding 100 footmen had little more Social Esteem than the cavalrymen (horses weren't cheap). A Knight Bachelor would command a Regiment of 500 Horsemen (a third of which might be Plate-armeded Knights, the rest being medium & light: made up of the Knights' Squires & Horse-archers who would fire on foot). The King, Prince or a Knight Banneret might command (but rarely control!) a 'Battle' of 5000 troops. While in an organized society a man with plate armor might be considered a 'Man at Arms' if he joined a military unit, a pure barbarian 'society' would base its social esteem directly on Experience Levels. Likewise the plate armor owner would probably have some contractual understanding (periods of service, feuds) with his lord, the barbarians' (including Berserkers, Amazons) vows would be to their tribe.

Gentlemen are a privileged class with either land of authority but without claim to the Noble's ruling power. First Level Clerics start at SL 4 of this Heiarchy, move up to SL 6 at 3rd Level, become SL 7 at 5th Level and SL 9 at 6th. Clerics may not switch Heiarchies & should be required to choose some God or religion (see D&D Supplement #4).

Nobles lease their land to Gentlemen & Knights and in return receive allegiance & taxes. More powerful nobles may in turn lease to other nobles, though powerful barons owing little allegiance to a King was not uncommon. Thus the man on top's ability to unite and lead all of the factions in a time of need was his greatest function.

Manumission (Slave Price) Prices shown are Gold Pieces based on the Abilities- Low/Medium/High. Add 10 GP for each skill or special ability. Subtract 10 GP for each defect. Slaves encouraged to commit a crime (such as escaping) will raise an alarm 50% of the time due to fear of being caught and lack of interest in being an escapee.

QUARTERS The following quarters' locations are general guidelines, useful mainly when rolling an encounter per quarter location. The Common Quarter is E4 through H4 and everything to the South. The Thieves' Quarter is J4 to L4 and everything South. The Merchants' Quarter is J5 to L5 and North (to the wall). The Seafront Quarter is B6 to D6 and everything South. The Noble Quarter is in the Northwest corner of the city and bounded by the other quarters.
Guildsmen would include almost all skilled workers. However, not all would have a strong Guild-type organization, as all of the trades grew from barbarian ancestry. Note that Guildsmen (except Beggars) start at SL 2, Laborer. Roll a six-sided and a ten-sided dice, to determine specific guildsmen (for example - a '6' & '8' would be '68' - Wheelwright).

BACKGROUND GUIDELINES

The City State of the Invincible Overlord is ruled by a hereditary monarch and the Senate. There is only one third chance per year of a Clanute (Senator) being summoned by the Overlord. The Overlord can overrule any act of the Senate by generally remains above alignment struggles. He also disbans the Senate depending on his whim of the moment (1 in 12 chance per day). The Senate consists of 30-36 Lords, 12-16 Patriarchs (& EHPs) 0-5 Wizards, 1-4 Druids, 1-4 Master Bards, 1 Master of Monks, 1 Ranger Lord, and 1 Paladin Lord. Each alignment group sets in a quadrant of the Stadium. Senators get one vote for every 200 troops at their command, and other Senators receive one vote for every 3 levels they have advanced. Each Senator supplies the Overlord with palace guards: the temples each supply one Bishop of the Wizard each supply a magic user of 2-8 LVL, the Lords each supply 1-6 fighting men (of 3-8 LVL) etc.

The Overlord himself is Lawful/Evil leaning toward Good and employs all alignment types in his efforts to maintain a firm power base. Only the highly lawful types have attempted organized resistance in the past; the attempts have always resulted in a larger following for the Overlord. The strict enforcement (though the Judicial system often provides incommensurate penalties for the level of crime committed) of laws and lack of religious bigotry (the Overlord donates half of all emergency taxes to the temples) has widened the Overlord's power. There is a 16% chance per week of an emergency tax of 2 GP per LVL on Nobles, 1 GP per LVL on Gentlemen and Merchants, and 1 SP per LVL on all others. In addition, the Overlord's secret police (called the Black Lotus) pervades all social levels to the extent that any organized rebellion will come to his attention (1 in 6 per day) no matter how secret. The Overlord's Guards: the Overlord himself 20 LVL, 69 HTK, AC2 (Bacers), Scintillating Robe, 4 Ioun Stones, Rod of Commanding, Vorpal Blade +2, Crown of Telepathy, Ring of Regeneration & Necklace of 9 Missiles. It is rumored that the Mighty Servant of Leuk-o (D&D Supplement #3, p. 46) guards the treasure rooms. The personal bodyguard includes a mindflayer, a beholder, a balrog, 2 myrmidon dwarves and 3 hell-hounds. An iron golem guards the throne room at all times and a stone golem guards the harem. The summer palace is guarded by LG alignment creatures.

FEAR: A secret society called FEAR (Fraternity for Eradication of Armored Riffraff) seeks to compel fighters below the fourth level to forgo the wearing of plate armor. It is rumored that it was founded centuries ago when plate was first widely used and considered an unfair advantage. The new impetus of this society is supposedly coming from the Knights of the Inner Circle who guard the fortress surrounding the Cryptic Citadel. The society usually (90% PROB) only humiliates its captives with yellow dye or foul missles of filth. There is a basic 20% chance (per plate-armored violator) per month of a carefully planned attack inside the City State only. The members wear red hooded robes over plate armor and use maces to subdue their victims.

The Waterfront Quarter is a dank and damp locale to live in. Check for Tuberculosis (2% PROB) once per game week for any character stationed or roaming there.

The Mer-Mist Swamp is swarming with mosquitoes, check for Yellow Fever in spring and summer (PROB 4% per 2 days). Likewise, Dearwood has Giant Ticks and 80% transmit Spotted Fever if they manage to bite (Giant Ticks are 3HD, AC4, one bite/1-4 & drain blood after attaching, 1-4).

BARBARIAN ALTANIS are nomadic tribesmen who roam the lands of their more advanced ancestors. Same as Nomads (D&D Book 3) except for every 100 in tribe 3 Shamans act as sub-commanders and one young female (called Protector) with Psionic Abilities will be present. Protectors can psionic blast, mind blank, precognition and animal telepathy (2nd level of mastery). The Altanian Chief, one per tribe, will vary in hit dice and ability depending on age: 1-15 years: 2 Hit Dice

16-30 6
31-50 9 (has tracking ability as Ranger Lord)
51-100 3 (can curse as Sage)

Many of the Barbarians find work in the Mercenary Guild in spite of the blood hatred with many of the Noble Clans of the City State. Altanian Lords get one vote in the Senate per 400 men at arms. These tributary Lords of South Alhanis are known as the traitor barons. The three Traitor Barons have abandoned old tribal ways, building strongholds from which to carry on an active slave trade. There are ancient cities never ventured into by the barbarians because they are considered the home of powerful spirits of the ancient ones.

I-16
THE WILD ORCS OF THE PURPLE CLAW: The orcs worship the Blood Stained God (D & D Sup.IV) and are led by an Amazon Queen/Priestess-FTR/CL. EC. LVL 10, 42 HTK; AC 6, +2 Chaotic Sword, +1 Bow. The orcs challenged to cut off all supplies to the city 14 years ago and were finally beaten back when the city established a redoubt across the river. Although the redoubt guards were slain to a man, the Queen of the Wild Orcs was killed and the orcs retired to crown her daughter. Since then, the Overlord has successfully appealed to the Driids to protect his woodsmen brave enough to live adjacent the Dearthwood. No-one has located the orc's stronghold although many expeditions have been lost attempting it.

THE GOBLIN RESERVATION: The goblins 40-400 live in a separate section outside the walls of the town in a huge tunnel complex. They are permitted to work in the city but must be outside the walls by sundown. The administration seeks to prevent further tunneling inside the walls since a royal party was interrupted by a drunken goblin mob who tunneled into a ballroom last spring. Wine is illegal to sell to goblins within the town. The goblins are theoretically ruled by a goblin king, Skimkak the Splended and his bodyguards. Simple the Skad as the thieves are known to call him, has been rumored to still do some tunneling for very high fees secretly within the walls. The reserve is secretly connected to the large tunnel/dungeon system under the town. The king possesses a hoard of 680 GP, 1200 SP, and 3900 CP. Hidden in the depths and known only by he and his bodyguards is the master plan of the tunnels made by the goblins (crudely drawn) with vague references to other passages.

*It is against the law for any merchant or innkeeper etc. to make change unless he has a moneychanger's license. Patrons asking for change are threatened with legal action.
*Every establishment has slave grooms (1-4) to guard horses for patrons. Most (PROB 60%) have extra slaves (2-12) to perform menial tasks.
*By the name of each street, there is probability chance of an 'encounter' peculiar to that street; this chance is rolled on alternate turns (on the turn that the normal encounter is not rolled). Notice that having one or more comrades will reduce the basic chance, per comrade, for some street encounters.
*In daylight, there will be 3-18 pedestrians and 1-6 horsemen in the street. No stranger will interfere with or aid another even if the law is broken. Alleys are always empty unless encounter is rolled; there is a 20% PROB of blockage by wagons, horses or goods & a 10% PROB of an object dropped from above per turn.
*Gambling is done by exceeding 0-100 dice roll of establishment game plus house odds. Players have 'Gaming SKILL' +3-18%.

Characters sleeping in armor must roll for Crud- PROB 20% per night.
*Intoxicants (unless otherwise noted) cause drunkenness anytime the number of drinks exceeds the character's constitution. Drunks have temporary loss of 1-6 on Intelligence and Wisdom characteristics and 1-10 on Dexterity, but Strength is increased 1-4 (actual penalty & strength bonus should not be disclosed). During fights roll 'Confusion'.
*Non-played characters have been assigned alignments- LG- Law/Good, LE- Law/Evil, LG- Good/ Chaos, EC- Evil/Chaos & N- Neutral, While in the City State it is considered a social repugnance to use alignment language publicly. Only Common and Altarian are used, the latter considered a base tongue. Fear of the law and bloody riots keep alignment hostilities in check (usually). However, the legal system makes some allowance for alignment hatred. Generally, any resident has a 20% PROB of being a given alignment.
*At social level four, sometimes lower, residents often (50% PROB) join a clan. Each clan has a noble leader. The clan sword pact prevents bloodshed between clan members- but little else beneficial. The clan noble (check Reaction) might act as interlocutor for a clansman. Prospective members pay a fee 20-80 GP and wait for acceptance in 3-18 days. Acceptance is basic Charisma times two stated as a percentage chance. Rejection by a clan is final. Typical clan names are Sword-Lord Clan, Savage Clan, Omniscient Clan, Vulture Clan, Freebooter Clan, Broadsword Clan, Dirksman Clan, Rogue Clan, Shark Clan, Tankard Clan, Wanton Clan, Tiger Clan, Stallion Clan, Henchmen Clan...

HELL-BRIDGE TEMPLE.

A suborder of the TEMPLE OF THOTH, this temple's hegemony is protected by the Covenant of Rain by order of the Overlord. It is devoted to the protection of the Baleful Eye of Morg having changed allegiance during the First Age to Neutral leaning toward Law/Evil.

It is the special worship place of the Assassins' Guild which is exempt from taxation for this reason. The guild consider it a tax none the less and pay the tithe grudgingly. The temple provides weather services for the city-state and shows little respect for its worshippers except the berserkers guards which augment the protection of the sanctuary.

About thirty berserkers and twenty acolytes are present until sunset when they are joined by 30-40 berserkers for the hour long ceremonies. Twenty Vestal Virgin dancers, twenty acolytes, four bishops, eight priests, two lamas, and one Evil High Priest named Statinstor the Inquisitor comprise the known clergy. The temple uses 21 criminals and slaves per week for sacrifices. Worshippers file into the temple in pairs wearing purple hooded robes of the sect, chanting prayers. Inside they buy a small red candle for one GP and shuffle into the sanctuary. Infiltrators are detected by the four berserkers who sell the candles. The sanctuary is huge with large serpentine pillars and seats up to 200. The 20 Bersker guards are 1 HD, AC 6, armed with halbards and swords. A lama, 6 HD, AC 2, 22 HTK armed with a Staff of Striking is always present with two bishops, 5 HD, armed with silver staffs, and four evil priests 3 HD armed with maces, AC 2 on the altar.

The idol is a 16' bronze eye covered with gold plate (50 GP/turn to remove) worth 120,000 GP. It is supported by three legs worth 16,000 SP each and encrusted with 400 Opals each. The idol is the repository of Morg's eye and legend says it still possesses the power to command should it see unencumbered. The temple is lighted by candles in candlesticks of silver worth 3000 SP each of which twenty line the altar. The candles are laced with a drug which heightens the effect of pain inflicted on the victims. Special gifts are placed in the bronze bowl in front of the altar. 10-20 GP, 120-240 SP. A jade dagger lies on the altar. Silver cords radiate from the idol to the ceiling worth 100 SP each.

The twenty acolytes, 1 HD, AC 4, armed with maces, wear red robes over their armor while in the sanctuary. They sit in the front row chanting. The lamas and the sacrifices enter from the East door while the dancers come from the West door. Torture instruments are below the altar stone. The 30' ceiling has a 3' hole to allow the toxic fumes to escape with 1" bars.

A. The Caretakers-Four zombies, AC 2, wearing plate and armed with swords (one +1 N sword) move 6", 8 HD, 16-22-36-54 HTK, guard the entrance to the temple area. password 'Battletag' to be uttered while backing into the opening, or the zombies attack. Four stone Troll heads filled with oil light the passageway which is very wet and cold. An acolyte with a message is waiting on a stone seat for his Adept master, SC 4, 3 HTK, mace, scroll reads: "From his Magnificence to the inept and most inefficient underling. Bring me the head of the accursed thief by the sixth bell tomorrow or you shall be the next chosen one." Seal of the EHP.

B. The Green Audience Chamber-Occupied by fat Bishop Fargus, 5 HD, 14 HTK, AC 5, awaiting an audience with an EHP on promotion, onyx box gift (300 GP) with gem (800 GP) and wears an amulet of ESP, Staff of Withering, and a pair of brass knuckles, silver helm with 15 gems worth 10 GP each. The bishop knows the secret passages above and the presence of an invisible stalker 8 HD, AC 3, 45 HTK, guarding the EHP secret passage. The room is concave and domed. with florescent stars on the ceiling one of which is an observation post for the EHP. The furnishings consist of an ornately carved table depicting servant girls and one large inlaid throne (10 GP/Turn can be chipped out) worth 670 GP.

C THE TEMPLE VESTALS-Sixteen girls (human) awaiting the next ceremony in the sanctuary. All dancers possess 60-120 GP in jewelry and have silver daggers strapped to their legs. Two cords hanging by a tapestry on the walls will summon their goblins kept in the pit below the water fountain 1-6 per turn for 10 turns. AC 6. No weapons. Delphie the headmaster knows the passages on this level...very loyal to EHP...will attempt to dupe and aid in capture of any.

D The Treasury—An evil lama 6 HD, AC 1, WPN +1 Mace, with Ring of Protection +1, guards the trove. The area isn't lighted and the walls are 20' thick. His two personal Evil Priests guard the triple locked iron door outside, 3 HD, AC 2, 10-16 HTK, WPN Maces, the larger having +3 hit probability due to strength. The treasure is 4 chests; 3000 CP, 2000 SP, 12 pcs of jewelry; 11000 GP, 4 pcs of jewelry, 2 gems; bag of 30 gems, gold scabbard with +2 N Sword worth 3800 GP, map to treasure room of Temple of Thoth; Elven Cloak, two walkie talkies charged for ten uses, scroll written in Altanian for w-t directions, necklace of prayer beads, potion of polymorph self, and in secret compartment a gold helm worth 3200 GP and a Wand of Illusion protected by a poison trap; 20 sacks with 2000 CP and 50 SP each.

The manual makes one an expert torturer being able to extract the truth from any PROB 10%/Turn with equipment and the Necronymicon will convert one to any chosen class as long as the possessor reads it once per week but it will change lawful to neutral and neutral to chaotic. The library is hidden behind a gold idol worth 300 GP invisible on the wall. The iron door is double locked from the inside and will only admit magical creatures unless dispelled. The door has a brass hand protruding from it which will animate and fly at anyone trying to open the door without turning it palm down...choking the offender in 2-12 turns as aerial servent. The hand is AC 2, 40 pips to destroy. Warning in 4 languages above portal. Necklace of gems worth 800 GP in wood box under bed. Chest with poison needle trap has old clothes, backpack with iron rations, rope, spikes, mallet and staves, belladonna, and garlic. CRIME, TRIAL & PUNISHMENT

Procedure: Adjust for CRIME & CIRCUMSTANCES. Subtract Social Level of Defendant from that of the Victim (result might be a minus) - add (or subtract) to adjustments so far. Roll on WEATHER, MAGISTRATE'S & LEGAL TRICKSTER'S DISPOSITIONS charts. Check if Defendant would like to DONATE TO COURT CLERK, crossindexing Defendant's Charisma. Use total to adjust 20 sided die roll (next page).

Before trying, give the defendant a chance to move the trial to another court is he so desires - 50% chance of success. Gentlemen and nobles may request the 'Right to Trial by Combat' if the Royal Court is used.

(outside Court Coinage is Silvers, Royal Court is 1-6 times price in Gold. Other courts is 1-6. Each 1000 GP thereafter adds +1, but beneficial judgements are split with the court).

RIGHT TO TRIAL BY COMBAT

No magic is allowed. Only swords & shields may be used. To prevent an unfair duel the Magistrate may appoint an opponent of equal hit die & ability. No substitution may be made for the defendant. The winner is dismissed. The defeated survivor is sentenced normally. Judicial duels are held in the square of the Gods. (Normally dueling is legal providing both parties have witnesses to verify willingness.)

THE COURTS

All cases come to The Low Court but it cannot try SL6 or higher. The Royal Court can try any type of case except Cleric defendants; the Royal Court gives all cases a +2 adjustment. The Canon Court gives Clerics & all others who successfully pronounce Divine Intervention a +4 adjustment. The Canon Court never imposes Punishments #1 through #6 (treat as imprisoned instead). The Canon Court excludes all witnesses, Interpleaders & tricksters. Clerics are never sold into slavery, impressed or apprenticed - use Humiliated instead. The Merchant Court cannot impose punishments #1-4 (it refers the case to the Royal Court for retrial the following week). Those accused of property damage or theft receive a -3 in the Merchant Court.

CRIMINAL CLASSIFICATION

Charged- Awaiting trial in 3-18 days; in jail, no bail. Convicted - Serving sentence such as 'Probation'. Escapee - first escape, has price on head: 1-6 GP. Fugitive - 2nd escape, has price on head: 2-6 GP. Bandit - 3rd escape, has price on head: 2-6 GP. Outlaw - 4th escape (& up) escape, has price on head: 10-60 GP (+10-60 GP per each escape over 4th).

*Must roll to see if recognized when encountering Constables only. Others could recognize but will not take action.

REPRISAL is chance of someone finding out bribe has been offered. If so, roll for following table:

- 1 Wants more coins (2x original amount) & be set free or move to Reprials #4.
- 2 Wants more coins (5x) or move to #5.
- 3 Wants more coins (10x) or move to #6.
- 4 Use original level of punishment and bribe returned.
- 5 Use original level of punishment and bribe lost.
- 6 Increase original level by 1 & charged with bribery.

ADVERTISING Ads cost 1-600 GP per week (they are torn down after that). Servitors must be paid in advance for a specific number of weeks search, this increases their chance of finding specialists by 2% cumulative per week. Specialists and Men at arms (hereafter called 'fighters') who answer the ad, per the charts next page, will accept the job offer based on two dice 'reaction' roll- adjusted for generosity and work environment (pluses may be given for minor bonuses like meal on Saturdays & so on). Advertising player being of different class or alignment, require negative adjustments. When advertising, a player may be as specific as he likes e.g. asking for a Neutral 4th Level Elf Thief; however this will reduce the ultimate chances to less than 1/10th of 1% in many cases. Players with long and highly specific ads should be required to write it all down each week. If numerous specialists or fighters show up and none or few are hired there ought to be a reaction roll to gage the 'crowd's reaction' to the slight. An uncertain result might require the player to pay 1 SP (or 1-6 GP for specialists) per applicant as a 'travelling recompensation'. A negative result might mean a mob action (however the player should rarely be permanently harmed as a result). See next page for basic chances of ad being answered.
